Subject: SHE IS THE TALL ONE-Family loyalty - Independent thinker

I haven't opened up your other emails to me since I went to bed last night and perhaps you have "caught up" with me, but I doubt it.

This article that you reference below may very possibly make up for all the "lost opportunity cost" for us not having published your short-story and getting it into the hands this morning of each member of the totally corrupt US Congress.

You will recall me saying on many occasions that President George W. Bush should go down as one of the greatest leaders of all time, no doubt the greatest President the United States of America has ever had, going back to its start when this country was founded by British corporations-colonies who then created these wonderful history books of hard working peoples arriving on the likes of the Mayflower, willing to risk life and limb in pursuit of individual freedoms beginning with the right to practice their respective religions all the while repressing and murdering the indigenous whose counsel was never sought in stuff like the United States Constitution which has yet to be amended to reflect the right of the U.S. Government in return for stealing South Africa's gold for some 45 odd years beginning in 1948 provided the South African Apartheid Regime with the most unimaginable protection in the form of the Armed Forces of the United States who never kept their presence in South Africa a secret.

Moreover, just the presence offshore back in mid-1964 of the nuclear powered aircraft Enterprise sent all "resistance movements" not just in De Beers controlled South Africa but throughout the world even deeper underground.

It is much more than a simple disgrace that there was ever a White Christian Cross so prominently displayed at Arlington Memorial Cemetery along with an inscribed wall opposite, paying to tribute to Attorney General of the United States, Senator Robert F. Kennedy who visited South Africa in June 1966 where this so extraordinarily strong protector of the South African Apartheid Regime failed to meet with his and his family's principal benefactor, De Beers' American representative, American Charles Engelhard and read this "open supporter" of the South African Apartheid Regime, the "riot act".

The fact that both the wall and the White Christian Cross remain much like the Nazi Swastika shaped military building built in 1969-1970 on Coronado Island, San Diego, makes of course perfect sense once getting one's around the fact that the Nazis won World War II.

The fact that President Bush's father has chosen not to distance himself from Bill "Cecil Rhodes-DeBeers-Scholar-lawyer" Clinton speaks untold volumes of the former President George Herbert W Bush's gross incompetency although culpability is no doubt a far better choice of words.

You will recall that President George W. Bush was the first western leader to denounce the atrocity of the Yalta Conference that convened some 2 days following the Russian Red Army, not the U.S. or Great Britain military liberating Auschwitz on February 2nd, 1945, that led immediately to the beyond belief meeting on February 14th, 1945 on board the USS Quincy between President Roosevelt and Ibn Saud of the House of Saud, Saudi Arabia; the photo shoot of Ibn Saud joking with a US Military Attache as the "potted plant" Roosevelt looked on, left nothing whatsoever to the imagination of those members of the Jewish Underground who saw the only option to staving off the extermination of the Jewish People, was to open a second front in Europe which became known as World War II.

How very difficult is it really to draw the connecting dots between recently elected President Roosevelt nominating in 1933 the virulent anti-Semitic Joe Kennedy as the first chairman of the Securities Exchange Commission overseeing the totally rigged stock markets.

How very difficult is it really to notice how much support the nonsense talker Hitler, a little so non-Aryan looking Corporal from World War I, got from the American banking establishment who had no difficulty whatsoever in crashing the German Mark during the Weimar Republic leading to the rise of Hitler?

How very difficult is it really to notice not just one tank or one Messerschmitt fighter plane coming out of a German factory when a barrelful of Marks couldn't afford a loaf of bread?

How very difficult is it really to notice that if you pulled all the FUCKING gold out of the mouths of the 6 million murdered Jewish people during the Nazi Holocaust how much of a dent would it have all made in being able to fashion a single FUCKING piece of metal to inevitably produce the most extraordinary Nazi German military machine that had the De Beers Allies "playing catch up"?

How very difficult is it really to notice who besides for De Beers was providing the stooge Hitler, picked from the bottom of the barrel, with all the critically needed industrial diamonds in order to make one FUCKING piece of precision tooling?

How very difficult is it really to notice that President Roosevelt when apprised by the OSS, the forerunner to the CIA that De Beers had infiltrated the highest levels of the British War Ministry, was in no position to take De Beers "to task"; on the contrary, De Beers was able to make a total mockery of Roosevelt as well as the 3 Branches of the United States Government who were paralyzed to do anything but just complain about De Beers refusing to stockpile industrial diamonds on U.S. soil given how well De Beers had also infiltrated all 3 Branches of the US Government including the OSS who were sharing military secrets with their counterparts in Nazi Germany?

How very difficult was it really for the 3 Branches of the United States Government to notice that De Beers non-industrial/precious diamond market was here in the United States and continues to this day?

How very difficult is it really to understand how EXTRAORDINARILY IMPORTANT it was for the Jewish Underground to "bite their tongues", let alone task a very accomplished group of Jewish underground commandos to assassinate not only Hitler but each and every one of his clowns knowing for an absolute fact that their replacements would be that much worse?

How very difficult is it really but only for totally corrupt morons to understand just one fact of life that the Nazis did in fact win World War II, was the fact Israel not only had to fight its War of Independence but the United States of America did everything within its power to OPENLY hamper the efforts of people like Jewish South African Boris Senior to bring in to Israel fighter planes that both the Americans and the British understood perfectly well would be the decisive factor in preventing those fighting for Israel's and the Jewish peoples' survival, ending up being pushed in to the Mediterranean Sea?

How very difficult was it really for both the British and American Government to hear Field Marshall Montgomery spelling out in simple English that in his opinion once the British pulled out of Palestine it would be just a matter of hours before the fledgling Jewish State would be no more?

You will recall how very little mention there is of the heroism of President George W. Bush in his condemnation of his father's generation of Americans who were anything but the Greatest Generation.

They were cowards and bullies and all you need to do is look at the succeeding generations of US Americans beginning with the most current generation who like their parents are the most disgusting, despicable bullies and cowards; President George W. Bush in my humble, but seasoned opinion, one of the extraordinary few exceptions.

Yes, can you imagine for one minute George W. Bush allowing a bully not matter how "beefy" to beat up on one of his friends who doesn't know from one dunking to the next whether the next dunking would have his life breath taken out of him?

Until such time as God himself tells me that George W. Bush is an evil man this great man will remain in my eyes one of the few great heroes of our time.

Do you not think it pains George W. Bush deeply to see the mutilation of our US Service people, let alone all the psychological damage they will endure the rest of their lives even those not returning from the Middle East with visible wounds?

Do you not think George W. Bush who can read a fucking balance sheet as well as anyone I know working on Wall Street and remember I know the smartest of the smart very well, that he doesn't understand perfectly well that by sending our poor in to harms' way on foreign soils he is first and foremost protecting Trust Fund kids like The IT's "tTOo" [sic] children who mostly "dilly dally" no different to George W. Bush's two children?

Do you not think George W. Bush hasn't figured out that if he ever puts out of his mind that the primary job of the President of the United States is to print money and second, declare war on any nation or people who refuse to our accept our totally worthless-fictitious and so very blood stained United States DeBeers Dollar then in the next instant we would have civil war in the United States as this these Trust Fund kids and their disgusting, so totally amoral parents escape to faraway lands?

Do you not think George W. Bush knows the first fucking thing about what it takes to dig a fucking oil well without De Beers' diamond drilling bits, always priced by this price fixer of price fixers at more than a barrel of oil?

Do you really, really, "rili" [sic] think George W. Bush would need to read the fucking Diamond Invention by Hollywood blockbuster author Edward Jay Epstein in order to know that for a century now De Beers, the monopolist of monopolist have owned the entire world's drilling industry?

Do you know of a single human being on this planet who hasn't used the word "FUCK" apart from my Royal Mater-Mother?

Do you know of a single human being on this planet, literate as well as illiterate, who couldn't easily understand the extraordinary significance of De Beers controlled Ibn Saud "holding fort" on the USS Quincy back on February 14th, 1945 with De Beers controlled President Franklin D. Roosevelt looking on so very sickly?

Do you know of a single Israeli Special Forces commando who may not speak a word of English being able to communicate with me at this time and understand every single word I speak in the most perfect Hebrew?

The word "Mealchamah" means "war" in English.

I doubt very much there is a single member of Israeli Military Intelligence who know better than to fuck with the Mossad and who wants to go to war with me, knowing quite obviously that God must surely be not only very much alive but on my side, the side of light, the side of truth, that which doesn't change.

The atrocities that the United States of America has committed during this Bush Administration has to be weighed against how much worse it would have been had anyone else such as John F. Kennedy or Clinton or worse yet President George Herbert W Bush and Co. including Sec. James A. Baker, been behind the desk in the oval office.

The fact that no one is commending George W. Bush in standing up to his father, a man who called time and again for a "New World Order" imploring us Americans that this "new world order" will have the "rule of law supreme" does nothing short of warming up the cockles of my heart.

Yes, "the rule of law" doesn't mean very much to those having to abide by the "rules of law" imposed by the regime with the biggest guns.

The Double Standards, the hypocrisy of epic proportions is now coming home to roost.

Knowledge-Information-Light travels at Light-G-D-speed to all 4 corners of the world.

The information divide that has kept the "have-nots" from getting at the "haves" being bridged in "real time".

No one, including me, in a position to know who exactly knows what or when they knew about The Diamond Invention and its dire straits implications for "freedom and democracy" but each of us knowing perfectly those who don't want such knowledge being spread are increasingly fearful, perfectly aware that it is just a matter of time before their excuses run out and they are all to the very last one of them, fully exposed for the scumbags that they know they are; and so of course does God who lets them know in His-Her own ingenious way by communicating with each one of their organs causing them first of all sleepless nights.

Yes, not even Devin Standard can find it within himself to confront his own African American Harvard Law School trained father since to do so would mean that Devin would have to confront his children and implore them to be better than him, beginning by making fun of the fact that Devin makes a good living gunrunning for Smith and Wesson and therefore contributing to the "output" of the American economy almost exclusively "destruction" based, with our out-of-control real estate development and industrial-military-complex only serving to mortgage the next generation's future.

Now look at Peruvian Augusto Benito Vargas who has yet again gone deafeningly silent after breaking a long silence and letting me know that he was now ready to do the "right thing" but as you will recall when looking very closely at his wording, Augusto wasn't all that articulate, far from it, sounding so much like an American-South African-British politician.

What it all comes down to is the fact that all those without a value system are brothers and sisters, nothing whatsoever to do with the nonsense of "family loyalty".

Such miserable bastards can be found throughout the world and what they all have in common is their single interest in grabbing what they can, feeling entitled to whatever they can get their hands on.

Moreover, just look at their parents who bide their time doing nothing more than enabling their offspring who give their parents every so often while mostly "playing victim", momentary "feel good" feelings just like Mother Theresa and the Roman Catholic Church have done throughout the 3rd World giving the poor and downtrodden "false hope".

You will recall in Estella Bravo's documentary, Fidel, the U.S. Government and the Catholic Church "joining hands", and spreading the most ungodly false rumors that Castro's revolution would take children away from their parents, leading to Operation Peter Pan that airlifted some 14,000 unaccompanied children out of Cuba to the U.S., all part of the "ground work" leading to the Bay of Pigs invasion which was first masterminded by the CIA during the Eisenhower administration but which President JFK "inherited" although "embraced" would be of course a better choice of words.

Following the "weapons trail" is of course central to understanding the "money trail" given how in war "money is no object".

Central to destroying "free and fair markets" is to keep the masses uneducated; and so of course, those benefitting the most from the lack of competition thanks to the U.S. military might, were very opposed to Fidel Castro who immediately upon defeating the US tyrant Bastida placed education at the heart of the Cuban revolution, teaching the farmers to read and write.

There is a good reason why it is that we allow those closest to us, those we co-opt-corrupt, to let "things slide" beginning by never encouraging them to question how exactly do their parents "make a living" that rarely if ever has them sweating, unless of course being questioned by kids programmed from the start to be curious, so that when these "kids" turn around and become "diKs" [sic], inevitably more out-of-control than their parents, so in the next instant the so over-controlling parent can then throw up their hands and say, "at least we tried" which of course does more than "fall on deaf ears" since the kids are now out of the house living off their Trust Funds.

Amazing how so very easy it is for the filthy bastard rich, the bullies, the cowards that they are to while the kids are still in their custody, still defenseless, still so impressionable to begin losing themselves in the ongoing misery of our miserable bastard children!

It is always the same message coming from the Bible, said in different ways, and for the life of me I am also tired of hearing it.

There are no "buts" when it comes to telling it the way it is.

George W. Bush has done as good a job in serving as the world's, not just US Americans', so very "easy target", as anyone I know, besides for myself, of course.

GWB from the very start when talking down the US economy tried to tell it exactly the way it is but again of course he cannot tell the whole truth because it is not only selfish bastard US Americans who cannot handle the truth.

There is no such thing as "family loyalty" and something the founding fathers and mothers of the State of Israel understood perfectly well.

Even in Israel's fight for survival, War of Independence the infighting amongst the best fighters the world has ever known continued, beginning with the sinking in June 1948 by Ben Gurion of the Altalena in Tel-Aviv Harbor with Menachem Begin, the head of the Irgun, the more militant Jewish Underground movement fighting the British-Americans, on board.

Such an important fact of life also not lost on someone such as David Ben Gurion who later in 1954 had to deal with the botched Susannah Operation in Egypt, all designed to embarrass the British-Americans from leaving Egypt allowing their despots looking like they had more "free reign".

Ben Gurion kept his innermost thoughts to himself and possibly one other person Boris Senior, a member of the Irgun, and who for "sum" [sic] reason when I met in late 1972, after I met for the first time with Ben Gurion on November 1st, 1972, some 57 odd days after De Beers sponsored PLO terrorists began to brutally murder 11 defenseless Israeli athletes at the MUNich Olympic Games, felt like most people who realized I had a "curiosity factor" more so than your average self-absorbed middle teenager born in to the "favored class" whose parents fail to draw the distinction between the role of parent and friend, that I could be trusted to keep certain truths to myself; truths that would never appear in print, at least not altogether as I am now doing, with God's help, of course.

No doubt what most convinced Boris to be extraordinarily forthcoming was my simple questioning of why so long after Israel had proven itself on the battlefield would she feel the need to be doing business with the South African Apartheid Regime who were so extraordinarily anti-Semitic, all the while allowing both weapons as well as monies to be sent to Israel, all the while allowing Jewish crooks living all over the world to flee to safety in Israel?

And before I allowed Boris to fully "catch his breath", I immediately delved in to questioning him about what he, a South African, coming from a relatively wealthy Jewish South African family, knew about the facts surrounding Jewish South African Natie Kirsh, a total unknown, managing to buy up from "under the noses" of the most sophisticated business people in the world, my father and his father's multinational trading conglomerate, The Moshal Gevisser Group of Companies for significantly less than liquidation value.

Not to mention, Kirsh and Co. keeping this great name wholesaler of wholesalers, in every business under the sun apart from precious minerals, going just long enough to totally humiliate and demoralize my father who stayed for about a year as a director while being paid peanuts believing that the person who did the "dirty deed", Sol Moshal, the "favorite" uncle of my dad's first cousin, David "Lucky" Gevisser, would "stick to his word" that my Dad would "always have a job" when doing the most unforgivable deed with the devil American Charles Engelhard who was very much alive in 1969, age 52.

To mention little of what I have written in the above paragraph could do one of two things.

First, cause my father, now 84 and very much on his last legs - his non-kosher pig valve possibly doing better than his remaining leaky one that was in such bad shape a few years ago when he had the pig implanted that they decided to leave it alone - to get a "second lease on life", and hop on a plane from Melbourne, Australia where he lives close by my sister along with his lifelong supply of the purple pill provided by my uncle, Leizer "Save Zena" Molk MD, meet me at San Diego International Airport and for the two of us after visiting with President George W. Bush have George join us in visiting with my uncle Dave in Johannesburg, South Africa and of course at our very first dinner to have not only my Royal Mater in attendance but the family of Steve Biko.

Second, cause my father to listen very carefully to my very street smart sister Kathy-Louise Gevisser Danziger and shut the fuck up!

In 1972, Boris Senior was 48 years old, one year older than my dad and some 5 odd years younger than my Royal Mater.

Boris Senior - who flew with the Allies in northern Italy at the same time as my father, at times, I believe, on the very same missions, but in different squadrons, Boris with the 250 and my dad, along with Syd Cohen in Squadron Eleven, both Squadrons in support of the American 8th Army - was very possibly the least naïve Jewish person living at the time, and saw no reason to "pull punches" once he had all the evidence I could also hold my own without having to "draw on weapons" that he knew my Royal Mater had familiarized me with from a very young age.

Remember some 20 months earlier, on March 2nd 1971, my uncle David Gevisser received US$6 million as his "sign on bonus" when agreeing to become the executor of Charles Engelhard's beyond belief mineral rich estate.

Remember also, it was also no secret to the Mossad who hadn't forgotten both the "dirty deed" of Natie Kirsh serving as a front for the De Beers Anglo American Cartel as well as the DAAC's assassination of my maternal grandfather Al Ash, exactly who attended Mossad assassinated Engelhard's funeral on March 2nd 1971 at St. Mary's Abby Church in Morris Town, New Jersey, apart from Senator Ted Kennedy, former President Lyndon Johnson and Vice President Humphrey.

Not to mention, Al Badash-Ash arrived in South Africa with his immediate family including my 18-year old Royal Mater in 1947, age 47, hot on the trail of the victors of World War II.

After World War I which my granddad Al volunteered for when he was 14 years of age, he then first went to Canada where he stuck an ax through his big toe when helping build Niagara Falls before then crossing illegally in to the United States where he "set up shop" in lower Manhattan before then returning to England, marrying my grandmother Rachel Pevy who now had a 6 year old born from a previous marriage, my uncle Joe Ash's father dying in a hospital accident prior, I believe, to Joe being born.

Al Ash comes from a long line of traders.

So do I.

Remember as well, some 5 odd months later, on August 15th, 1971, the United State went officially off the Gold Standard and the value of Engelhard's fabulously rich platinum and gold holdings went through the roof with my "lucky" uncle in the words of my Royal Mater, "sitting pretty".

After our first meeting, and having arranged to meet again, after my final academic tests at Kibbutz Sde Boker, Boris looked at me "square in the eye" and said,

"One day, assuming you live long enough, you could very easily become the head of the Mossad, but first your mother would have to agree!"

It was no secret the closeness of my mother to my uncle Dave Gevisser as well as, of course, Boris Senior.

When I returned to South Africa in late December 1972 fully aware of Mossad hit squads having been activated throughout the world as well as having been provided sufficient resources to remain "underground" for eternity if necessary, following the decision by Ben Gurion to send the clearest signal possible to all those financing and harboring those wanting to rid the world of Jewish people, I waited patiently for my Royal Mater to ask me questions.

The only question my so very aware, so extraordinarily "on-top-of-things", so non-repetitive mother ever asked as it related to this one 4 month trip to Israel, and she did it repeatedly, enough of a sign for me to take careful note, was,

"Why did you sell your clothes?"

Not only were the clothes she bought me small to begin with, but I had grown quite considerably on that trip, and obviously quite apparent to anyone with even a halfway decent set of eyes.

More importantly, my mother, like Boris knew I had not only sold these "nothing to speak of" clothes but the no more than US$20 in exchange, I took the time to deposit, less possibly a couple of Dollars for food and travel, in to my mother's bank account at Bank Leumi; both Bank Leumi and Boris Senior's name were the first things I had written in the diary I purchased, at the instruction of my mother, when first arriving in Israel on September 1st, 1972, some 3 odd days prior to De Beers sponsored PLO terrorists beginning to brutally murder 11 defenseless Israeli athletes.

So conspicuously absent in my mother's questioning was her not commending me on having done extraordinarily well not only in Gadna training where I scored perfect scores on the shooting range but the 98% in the final academic exams which were all in Hebrew.

Not to mention in the days before our final tests I "buried myself" at the Kibbutz's library named after Ben Gurion who again was now living at the Kibbutz and very much alive and "on top his game" commanding his most trusted counselors who were now fighting World War III, seeking strategic alliances throughout the world, beginning in China; the Chinese the Jews of the Orient.

Remember as you plan the rest of your day and I assume your life, not to forget your latest "love interest", both my mother and father remain alive, the same with my uncle David Gevisser and his equally despicable son, author-investigative journalist Mark Gevisser.

It possible that Tefo may find both the courage and my US$5,000 to try again launching in South Africa, an INFORMERS WANTED campaign.

BELL DEWAR & HALL

Marie now telling JoNathan about the delicious lunch, "meatless meat balls, mushrooms, onions, cheese and avocado" she prepared for his school lunch and just moments before Marie Dion Gevisser was commenting on how very pretty were the waves which I can now see with my own eyes as MDG moves just slightly to the left of me "lazing in bed" providing me a perfect bird's eye view of the waves rolling in.

Not to mention, young JoNathan, now 15, with yet another cold, induced no doubt from THE IT's addiction to force feeding antibiotics when JoNathan was a kid, no doubt also arguing today that it helps prop up both JoNathan's and Danielle's multimillion dollar Trust Funds.

Yes, why should anyone let alone the children of privilege be allowed a "free pass" to keep hidden their skeletons as our mostly very poor American service people get their faces burned off, their limbs blasted away, their children left motherless and fatherless ONLY BECAUSE the "favored class" who have all the facts are only concerned for "living like Kings" and resigned to comment,

"We can only die once and that will in all likelihood only happen after the poor of the world have finished brutalizing each other".

As I enquire more about this appetizing meal, Marie is telling me how best to prepare it all in the Panini griller,

"First make a balsamic vinegar-oil mixture and on the side grill the mushrooms, onions and meat balls separately, only place the cheese in between the Panini bread and once it is melted then put it all together, the avocado last."

Given how Marie has errands to run after art class with Sebastian Capella this morning - it looks like my constantly on her feet, so sexy in everything she does, is going to be on time - my plan is cook myself this delicious meal for lunch after spending the rest of the morning in the surf on my wave ski where I will be testing out a new hood to better protect my ears.

I think you would agree that God won't have much of a problem in me taking this time out, all the while empowering me while exercising in the sun to keep up the fight and to not forget God's mighty hand which I witness each and every moment; and nothing more apparent than the fact that The IT, the slimeball of slimeball cannot enter the salt water given the risk he faces of permanent blindness.

BTW were you aware that THE IT who got permission from his 18 year old daughter Danielle when she was just 15 and working at her first job at the Java Kai coffee shop on the corner of 15th Street and Highway 101, to marry The IT's cow, is still not wearing a diamond wedding ring, in fact even though Danielle told The IT he should go ahead and marry The Cow after The IT approached her during her ten minute break looking for a reason to get out of marrying the Cow and hoping to use Danielle as the reason since he was quite certain given how he had raised Danielle to be all about money, that Danielle would have a problem with her Trust Fund being depleted by this marriage, yet to be, and that was some 3 odd years ago?

Of course I never wish anyone harm or ill knowing again the awesome power of God to unleash in this lifetime as well as the next the most extraordinary vengeance on the evil doers who with each passing moment feel increasingly uncomfortable about their day of reckoning with our omnipotent power, to the point that they find it increasingly difficult to even choose suicide.

Remember, I am writing all this in "real time" and therefore don't forget I am alive, fit and well and willing to confront anyone including Asama Bin Laden so very obviously on the payroll of the United States of America's government whose loyalty are only to the likes of The IT and Bin Laden and their miserable supporters, increasingly isolated.

To suggest for a moment that Bin Laden is more evil than The IT is ridiculous, once of course one has got one's arms around the "deafening silences" of each and every slimeball "living the good life".

Not to forget how the other evening at the La Jolla Art Association party this one South African couple, I have known more than a quarter of a century, let me know, "Living well is the best revenge", although those so very stinky words came out of ex-Jewish South African, Tony Guild's mouth, after I had pointed out to him and his wife Renee, the extraordinary hypocrisy of Jewish South Africans, so very aware of the role De Beers has played in people such as them and of course a whole lot richer and who know better than to open their big ugly mouths, being able to amass untold fortunes all over the world that allow them to recite so very easily, "Living well is the best revenge".

Tony and Renee who I first met in the early 1980s have not only made a good chunk of change here in the U.S. in real estate but this past year, according to Renee who sells luxury residences, was the "best ever", so much so that the two of them and their two kids are off this week to South America.

Moreover, Tony, so proud of himself as an astute investor that he felt the need to let me know that he didn't follow my guidance when I first mentioned in my heavily broadcasted emails which he and his wife received beginning December 31st, 2002 when gold closed the day at US$347 a troy ounce, instead so very cockily proclaimed, "I purchased gold when it was US$150", which had me responding in not so many words,

"That seems like a pretty dumb investment considering the fact that the last time Gold traded at those levels was back some 34 years ago, around the time Marc Rich was trading with the enemies of supposedly the US and Israel".

It was of course my "two pennies worth" of insults that caused Tony, prior to him being a candidate for a nice Jewish old age home, displaying his abominable arrogance, "Living well is the best revenge" but only after I had gone on to question him about the nexus between the United States of America and the South African Apartheid Regime which had him asking the logical question but only from a moron, "Why don't you just leave the United States?"

BTW you may have heard that Jewish South Africans give the very best parties and perhaps you might have a way of finding out when is the next one.

Bear in mind that the two of them, not in the least bit ageing well, although their plastic surgeons must be smiling from ear to ear - and of course they along with a good number of their South African friends are copied on this communiqué - showed up at the free booze and food art party, totally unexpected, just passing by and apparently having no idea that I would be present.

Not to mention that immediately upon recognizing me, and of course I had the hardest time recognizing them, Renee who is "friendly, friendly, friendly" with all the South Africans still with money such as the Essakows counting on Roy Essakow's ill-gotten gains working for Marc Rich, began a tirade about my,

"nonsense emails that for so long kept popping up on my computer even though I thought I had got rid of them".

To mention little of one female artist friend of mine who has been to www.just3ants.com, and very possibly hearing and certainly watching Renee exhibit the short-circuits in her brain as she kept walking around me while "telling me off", very calmly walked up to us as I was writing down just3ants.com on a piece of paper since Renee kept repeating she was having the hardest time remembering it, and letting Renee know, "It is a most informative website" which totally knocked the wind out of Renee's sail.

BTW were you aware that this past Friday, December 14th, we apparently experienced one terrific Meteor show; according to Marie who was only reading today an old email from Dr. John K. Pollard Jr., "the show should be at least as bright as the stars of the Big Dipper."

Of course I didn't bother introducing Marie to the Guilds who of course couldn't take their eyes off this most gorgeous walkin-talkin work-of-art, the only comment from Renee when Tony asked to point her out, "She is the tall one!"

Always remember until next meeting up with our maker, we all now know there are sufficient natural resources remaining so that no one has to work very hard anywhere in the world, all the while raising the standard of living of everyone to the point that there would be not a single poor person anywhere and that includes the jungles that remain in places like Peru and Brazil.

The problem rests with those currently, "Living well" who are deathly afraid of what democracy would mean to those who have been so downtrodden who could so easily today given the power of the Internet organize themselves in to totally incorruptible grass roots organizations and WITHOUT resorting to violence, which would play directly into the hands of De Beers and their very organized militaries, FORCE these arrogant murderers who rely on the world's mostly poor military to maintain their worthless-fictitious and so very blood stained lifestyles, to "stand down", which is exactly what the ingenious Israeli Military Intelligence report is designed to do without any further comment.
