Couldn't someone in the office, perhaps even Kim, come up with something more original?

Can you also get me the name, some 6 pelicans, now another, making a grand total of 7 just glided by heading towards Camp Pendleton, of that 60 Minutes Executive Producer who called you back on March 31st, 2003 when for the one and only time you had me wait in the foyer "clicking my heels" for one of our so very important meetings.

BTW unless Marie calls, I could do lunch today at Rainwaters.

Would you like me to make a reservation? I could pay with either gold or Euros.

If I hear from you back in the next 60 seconds I might hold off on following up with President George W. Bush.

Gold last trading US$885.70. Would you agree it is a good time to buy?

Subject: Jewish Conspiracy

I believe that there is a conspiracy based in Del Mar, San Diego California. California is the state where Austrian Nazi, turned bodybuilder turned Governor who is now married to a leading figure in the Kennedy clan, rules. Also, San Diego is home to many military facilities including NAB Coronado which is, in fact, a training facility for numerous foreign special forces including a crack team of Mossad assassins who are learning to use post-its to inflict numerous paper-cuts to kill. (Please beware)

The purpose of this conspiracy is to send out numerous, confusing, incoherent emails to as many people as possible thus being moronic and annoying. Once everybody has gotten sick of these asinine emails and stop reading them, major Jewish diamond merchants who control the military industrial complex and 2/3s of the worlds supply of decorative plastics will then be able to email the world their plans for total domination of the universe (with the exception of Uranus which, as Einstein pointed out to his professors who wouldn't hire him to sweep their floors, isn't really that exciting a place.)

Once the have emailed their plans they can take over and then say "Don't say we didn't warn you." What will happen to the cost of crackers then? As I am sure you know, the cracker cartel has been waiting for just such an event. What shall we do? I recommend you continue to send out your ridiculous ramblings, refuse to take your medicine, and make sure to tell everyone what you are having for dinner in your emails because it is so interesting and really important.

Additionally, please make sure that your emails and posting continue to be rambling and make no sens and go off on tangents that remind people of looking at a diamond that was made by De Beers which was financed by JP Morgan who lived in Manhattan which is where most Jewish people live (coincidence?)

I thank you for your time. (Did any birds fly by your window while you were reading this?)
